3. On 25 November, soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank and artillery insignia were seen at the installation. At 4 p.m., 1 officer and 16 unarmed soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia and carrying full field pack marched from the barracks installation toward the railroad station. On 3 December, an undetermined number of unarmed soldiers organized in groups were practicing in the southern section of the installation. The noise of close-combat drill was heard in a shed in the northern section of the installation. At noon, six young officers wearing red-bordered black enablets without insignia entered the installation, coming from the direction of the town. They carried small luggage. At 4 p.m., 5 officers and about 30 soldiers wearing red-bordered black enablets and carrying entrenching tools were observed entering the installation. All quartering buildings were lighted at dusk.
